FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Telegraph Market Report will be found on the third page in connection with other regular telegraphic matter.

Office of the Louisville Democrat, Friday Evening, March 10, 1868.

The New York gold market was weak and declining to day, the premium having touched 18½% and closed 18½%.

The market is in active sympathy with New York, and transactions, though unimportant, are based upon quotations from that market, and at figure which afford small margins for profits. We quote:

SELLERS. Gold, $1,000 per oz. 100½%; Silver, $100 per oz. 100%; Half-ounce dollars, 100½%.

BUYERS. Gold, $1,000 per oz. 100%; Silver, $100 per oz. 100%; Half-ounce dollars, 100½%.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE of a recent date says:

The tendency of cotton at Liverpool and of bonds at London has been again and again in the premium, and the tendency of cotton at Liverpool is in the same direction. There is, however, a growing conviction that the financial interests of the United States will be upheld by Congress will be inclined to force up the premium, and there is consequently a very general disposition to hold gold.

Exchange to day was heavy and dull owing to large offerings and reduced supplies of currency. Dealers were buying from 1½% to 2% off and selling from 1½% to 10% discount to par. The local money market exhibited more closeness to-day than for some time past with complaint of scarcity of currency, not to any embarrassing extent, however, and prime commercial paper met with prompt accommodation at the banks at the usual rates of interest.

Government securities have ruled dull in this market for some time past and holders have shown a disposition to sell and invest in stocks less subject to political influences. The Financial Chronicle, of Saturday, says:

The banks appear to be sellers and there is a steady influx of bonds from the country, in excess of the current demand for them.

Dealers are becoming interested at the indications of the probability of Congress adopting the policy of the administration in respect to the reduction of the rate of interest upon the bonds of the United States.

There is an expectation that this will be increased by two-thirds of the winter's cure.

Wheat is firm and stocks are reduced. Corn is firm. We are beginning to receive accounts of wheat products from various sections of the country, which will be of great interest.

The flour market is firm, with a good local and shipping demand, and stocks are fair.

We note a sharp decline in raw whisky, with tax of $2 paid at $2 20 per gallon. Dealers are loud in their complaints of the extreme severity of the revenue regulations in force in this district.
